

SHORT COURSE: MENTAL HEALTH RESEARCH AND EVALUATION

Join us for 3 days at the Amaryllis Hotel, July 17-19!

Learn why mental health research is one of the most rapidly growing fields in public health; attain the skills and tools to publish in medical journals; strengthen Malawi through research and evaluation

Free course with limited seats!

Taught by leaders at Kamuzu University of Health Sciences and Harvard Medical School

WHAT

A three-day short course on mental health research and evaluation

WHO

Sessions taught by professors, researchers, implementers, and clinicians

WHERE

Amaryllis Hotel Conference Room, Blantyre

WHEN

Monday-Wednesday
17-19 July
10:30am-2:30pm

- Course Summary: An interactive survey course on research and evaluation methods within the field of mental health. We will explore features of research unique to mental health, and we will talk through practical applications and examples. The goal of this course is to equip participants with the knowledge and resources necessary to implement research and evaluation in the field of mental health.
- Eligibility: Current or recent bachelor and master degree students at Kamuzu University or other nationally accredited university; possesses a background and interest in statistics, research and evaluation, and mental health; motivated to attend all three days of the workshop. Contact email below for an application.